Clementine
Neil Young

Intro is F#m with a bit of a hammer on the low A note

#note# in-between sections the song finds it s grove by reverting to F#m for a couple of bars.
As the song goes on, F#m stays for longer with slidey bits.
These can be slid between E--0--2--5 or B--2-5-7-10
                          A--0--2--5   G--2-4-6-9-

Verse
```
     A              E
```
In a cavern, in a canyon,
```
   Bm             F#m
```
Excavating for a mine
```
       A           E
```
Dwelt a miner forty niner,
```
       D              F#m
```
And his daughter Clementine

```
        A              E
```
Light she was and like a fairy,
```
       Bm                F#m
```
And her shoes were number nine,
```
       A              E
```
Herring boxes, without topses,
```
       D             F#m
```
Sandals were for Clementine.

[Chorus:]
```
      A              F#m
```
Clementine, Clementine,
```
      A                 D
```
Oh my darling, Clementine!

Verse
```
         A                E
```
Drove she ducklings to the water
```
    Bm              F#m
```
Ev ry morning just at nine,
```
       A                  E
```
Hit her foot there against a splinter,
```
      D             F#m
```
Fell into the foaming brine.

```
    A                 E
```

Ruby lips above the water,
```
      Bm                    F#m
```
Blowing bubbles, soft and fine,
```
     A               E
```
But, alas, I was no swimmer,
```
     D           F#m
```
So I lost my Clementine.

[Chorus:]
```
     A               F#m
```
Clementine, Clementine,
```
     A                   D
```
Oh my darling, Clementine!

Verse
```
        A        E
```
then the miner, 49er
```
     Bm              F#m
```
soon began to peak and pine
```
          A               E
```
thought he aughta join his daughter
```
        D                F#m
```
now he s left with clementine

```
     A                       E
```
in my dreams she still does haunt me
```
     Bm                  F#m
```
broken garments soaked in brine
```
          A               E
```
though in life I used to hug her
```
   D                  F#m
```
in death i draw the line

[Chorus:]
```
     A               F#m
```
Clementine, Clementine,
```
     A                   D
```
Oh my darling, Clementine!

Verse
```
       A                 E
```
How I missed her! How I missed her,
```
     Bm                F#m
```
How I missed my Clementine,
```
     A                 E
```
so I kissed her little sister,
```
         D              F#m
```
and I forgot my Clementine.

```
[Chorus:]
        A                  F#m
Clementine, Clementine,
        A                  D
Oh my darling, Clementine!
        A                  F#m
clementine, clementine
          A                    D
you are lost and gone, Clementine
            F#m clementine...

 [slide around in F#m!]

[Chorus:]
        A                  F#m
Clementine, Clementine,
        A                  D
Oh my darling, Clementine!
        A                  F#m
clementine, clementine
          A                    D
you are lost and gone, Clementine
