

Flags Of Freedom
Neil Young

C F C
Today s the day our younger son is going off to war,
F
C fightin in the age old battle we ve sometimes won before.
G D F
Flags that line old Main Street are blowin in the wind,
C G C
these must be the flags of freedom flyin .

C F
C
Church bells are ringin as the families stand and wave,
C F
C
some of them are cryin , cause the soldiers look so brave.
G D
F
Lookin straight ahead, like they know just where they re goin ,
C G C
past the flags of freedom flyin .

C F
C
Sister has her headphones on, she hears the music blasting,
F
C
she sees her brother marchin by, their bond is everlasting.
G D F
Listening to Bob Dylan singin in 1963,
C G C
watching the flags of freedom flyin .

C F
C
She sees the president speakin on a flat-screen TV
G F C
in the window of the old appliance store.
G D
F
She turns to see her brother again, but he s already walkin past
C G C
the flags of freedom flyin .

G
Have you seen the flags of freedom?
F C

What color are they now?

G

Do you think that you believe in yours

F

C

more than they do theirs somehow,

G

C

when you see the flags of freedom flyin ?

C

F

C

Today s the day our younger son is going off to war,

F

C fightin in the age old battle we ve sometimes won before.

G

D

F

Flags that line old Main Street are blowin in the wind,

C

G

C

these must be the flags of freedom flyin .