Hangin' On a Limb
Neil Young

Intro. (D D9 D G   C G D D9 D)   x2

```
D                            G
```
Though the river flows / Gently to the sea
```
C              G        D
```
He was on the shore / Rooted like a tree
```
D                            G
```
She was here and there / Riding on the waves
```
C                    G                    D
```
Through it all she heard his call / And gave it all she gave.

```
A
```
And though their love
```
     G
```
was hangin on a limb
```
    D                        Em7  D/F#          G
```
She taught him how to dance . . . and start again
```
A
```
And though their love
```
     G
```
was hangin on a limb
```
    D                        Em7  D/F#    G    A
```
She taught him how to dance.

(Solo) x2

```
   D      D9 D        G                      C        G         D     D4 D
```

```
E|-2--2-2---2--2-------------------------------------------------0h2-2-2-3-2--|
B|--------5------5-3-3-3-3h5-5-------3-3h5-5-5-3-------3-5--------------|
G|--------------------------2h4-4------------4-2-2-----------------| x2
D|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
A|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
E|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
```

```
D                            G
```
And when the melody / Through the window called
```
   C              G              D
```
It echoed in the courtyard / And whispered in the halls
```
   D                                G
```
He played it through the night / She knew he had to go
```
        C              G          D
```
There was something about freedom / He thought he didn t know.

```
A
```
And though their love

```
      G
was hangin  on a limb
     D                        Em7  D/F#        G
She taught him how to dance . . . and start again
A
And though their love
     G
was hangin  on a limb
     D                        Em7  D/F#    G    A
She taught him how to dance.

(solo) x2

D                             G
Though the river flowed / Gently to the sea
   C          G        D
He was on the shore / Rooted like a tree
    D                         G
She was here and there / Riding on the waves
 C                  G                  D
Through it all she heard his call / And gave it all she gave.

A
And though their love
     G
was hangin  on a limb
     D                       Em7  D/F#         G          G
She taught him how to dance . . . and start again
```