C F
 Though the river flows / Gently to the sea
 Bb F C
 He was on the shore / Rooted like a tree
 C F
 She was here and there / Riding on the waves
 Bb F C
 Through it all she heard his call / And gave it all she gave.

G
 And though their love
 F
 was hangin on a limb
 C Dm7 C/F# F
 She taught him how to dance . . . and start again

G
 And though their love

C F
 And when the melody / Through the window called
 Bb F C
 It echoed in the courtyard / And whispered in the halls
 C F
 He played it through the night / She knew he had to go
 Bb F C
 There was something about freedom / He thought he didn't know.
