Old Laughing Lady : Unplugged

F Bb F

F
Don t call pretty Peggy,

Bb F
She can t hear you no more

Don t leave no message

Bb F
Round her back door

Bb
They say the old laughing lady

F
Been here before

C Bb
She don t keep time

F
She don t count score

F Bb F

F
You can t have a cupboard

Bb F
If there ain t no wall

You got to move

Bb

There s no time for you to stall

Bb 020010 Gm

They say the old laughing lady

Bb C F

Dropped by to call

C Gm

And when she leaves

Bb F

She leaves nothing at all verse: (without the run through Am)

F

See the drunkard of the village

Bb F

Fallin on his feet

He can t tell his ankle

Bb F

From the rest of his feet

Bb 020010 Gm

He loves his old laughing lady

Bb F Am

Because the taste is so sweet

C

But the laughin lady s loving

Gm Bb F

Ain t the kind he can keep

C Gm Bb F

F

There s a fever on the freeway

Bb F

Blacks out the night

There s a slippin on the stairway

Bb

F

Just don t feel right

Bb

There s a rumblin in the bedroom

Bb

F

And a flashin of light

C

There s the old laughing lady

Bb

F

Everything is all right

C

There s the old laughing lady

Bb

F

Everything is all right

C Gm Bb F

notes: the quick change to C and G at the end on many lines is omitted it occurs everywhere but if there ain t no wall / you got to move... the run through from C to Am via the B note is a familiar ny trick...
