

Pushed It Over The End
Neil Young

I did no more than add the second and third reversable verses...

Thanks to Shakey for the rest!

Pushed It Over the End (by Neil Young, 1974)

Tabbed by

Additional verses transcribed by Steve Vetter [vetters@vax1.elon.edu]
from the 5/16/74 Bottom Line show and the Summer 1974 CSNY show at Roosevelt Stadium in NJ

CHORDS: F#m7 : 022030 Bsus4 : x02230 (called Bs4 below)
 Dadd9 : x32030 Asus4 : 320013 (called As4 below)
 D : x32010 Esus2 : xx0230
 A : 320003 Bsus2 : x02200
 B : x02220 B9 : xx7657
 Gmaj7 : 1x3210 A9 : xx5435

Intro: F#m7, Dadd9

Verse:

F#m7		Dadd9
Good looking Milly s got a gun in her hand but she don t know how to use it
F#m7		Dadd9
Sooner or later she ll have to take a stand and she ain t about to lose it
F#m7		D
All the towns people gather round, they come to see what s goin down
A	B	A	B
And although no one hears a sound, there s another poor man falling down
Bs4	As4	A
Falling down, falling down
Bs4	As4	A	Bs4 As2
Falling down, falling down
A	Ds2	Gmaj7
On this noisy shore standing at the edge of view
B	A	Ds2
Could those dreams of yours be true
Gmaj7
Or did you did you did you
B9	A9	Ds2	Gmaj7
Push it over the end, how much time did you spend
B9	A9	Ds2	Gmaj7
Push it over the end, how much love did you spend, etc.

Good lookin Milly s into politics now and things are looking much better

