SILVER AND GOLD- Neil Young

F                    C
Working hard every day
Bb
Never notice how the time slips away
F                    C
People come, seasons go
Bb
We got something that will never grow old

CHORUS:

F                    Bb                    F                    Bb
I don t care if the sun don t shine
                         F                    Bb                    F                    Bb
And the rain keeps falling down on my and mine
                         F                    Gm                    Am                    Gm                    C Csus4 C
Cos our kind of love, never seems to get old
(N.Bb.)                    F                    Bb                    F Bb F Bb C
It s better than silver and gold

I used to have a treasure chest
Got so heavy that I had to rest
I let it slip away from me
Didn t need it anyway, so I let it slip away

CHORUS TWICE

F                    Bb                    F                    Bb
It s better than silver and gold
                         F                    Bb                    F                    Bb
It s better than silver and gold
                         F                    Bb                    F                    Bb                    F
It s better than silver and gold

I play it this way:

(I also usually keep my guitar tuned down a step,

so it may be equivalent to what Steve has down,

I didn t really check before replacing the chords...)
