

Stranger In Paradise
Neil Young

NEIL YOUNG

STRANGER IN PARADISE

NOTE : This song is a piano song that you have to listen if you want to sing and play guitar correctly. Also, you have variations of basses on the intro and at the end of the song, over a unique chord ...easier thing to do on a piano than on a guitar. This is a beautiful song, so take time to learn it and don't give up at the first try!

Thi. Dauriat thibiat@yahoo.fr

INTRO : Variations of basses on a F

G# Bb Eb
Take my hand, I m a stranger in paradise.
Cm Fm Bb Eb
All lost in a wonderland, a stranger in paradise.
Dm Eb Gm Fm Bb Eb
If I stand starry-eyed that s a danger in paradise
G# Cm Fm Bb Eb
for angels [?] from beside a [?] like you.

Eb Ebm Ebm E F# G#m
I saw your face and I ascended,
Fm G# Eb Fm
out of the common place into the rare.
E Am
Somewhere in space I hang suspended
G# Eb
until I know there s a chance that you care.

Fm
won't you answer this loving prayer
Bb Eb
of a stranger in paradise?
Cm Fm Bb Eb
Don't leave me in dark despair for all that I hunger for.
Dm Eb Gm Fm Bb Gm
But open your angel eyes to the stranger in paradise,
G# Cm Fm Bb Ebmaj7
and tell him that he will be a stranger no more.
F1 Eb2

a stranger no more

Bb

G stranger...

Then, like in the intro : Variations on a F then applaude, then cut.

Starring : (in order of apparition)

G# x13331

Bb x30210

Eb 133211

Cm xx0231

Fm 355333

Dm 022000

Gm x02210

Ebm 133111

E 244322

F# 466544

G#m x13321

Am x24432

For the 3 next, play the E string with thumb

Ebmaj7 133210

F1 130210

Eb2 110210