     E   D
After all these years tryinâ€™ to set it free
     E   D
The pain seems to fade but it never leaves
     E   D   E   D
The memories haunt me and I wish theyâ€™d let me be. Yeah!
  C#m   B   A
I gambled on love
    C#m   B   A
and it tore me apart
      C#m   B   A
Be still, be still, be still,

      E   D
My broken heart
        E   D
Be still my heart!

   E   D
I wasnâ€™t born wise but I learned this much
       E   D
Though you took all I gave it was never enough
       E   D   E   D
There was a time Iâ€™d have died for your soul, your strength, your touch
     C#m   B   A
But Iâ€™ll leave it behind,
    C#m   B   A
try to make a new start
    C#m   B   A
Be still, be still, be still,

      E   D
My broken heart
        E
Let the pain fade away!

        A   B

It was the heat of the moment in the heart of a dream
      C#m                              A
You lit fire to my soul and you said youâ€™d never leave
      A                    B
Itâ€™s tearinâ€™ me up, baby, where have you been?

      C#m          B            A
Oh, please, oh please, oh please!
C#m             B               A
please just understand me
      C#m       B       A
And what this nonsense means. oh, yeah!
