

Lucifers Lament
Neva Dinova

Tabber: Glossop

Tuning: Standard

Hey, basically i went to play this song and the tab that was there for it wasn't very accurate. I have ammended the majority of the chords and now you can play it against the song without the chords sounding different. I hope you enjoy it :).Any corrections, leave a comment.

E B C#m A B A E
Face first in gloves, i got some cancer for your love.
E B C#m A B
But you can only die twice, it s that second time that A E
makes the first time seem so nice.
E B C#m A
As fars i can tell, my angel, she fell,
B A E
her wings are sticking through her dress.
E B C#m A
And i don t want to look, but i must, she mistook me for B A E
one who could be saved, i guess.
E B C#m A
And i know what they say we look the same in the dark,
B C#m A
yeah i know what they say i walked in asbury park
B A E
saw my troubles in the hearts of men.
E B C#m A B A E
Hate s a girl with pretty eyes, but i m just not the type.
E B C#m A B A E
Truthfully i believe that anyone who dies kills themself.
E B C#m A E B C#m
And i fell from great heights, and saw a lot, however
A E
fast it past.
E B C#m A
And i don t really like the way that i ve become,
B C#m A
but i can t stope it now, when the madness comes,
i ll get out.

Thanks, i really like playing it like that and i m sure you will to! Make sure you listen to the song to get a good idea for the strumming pattern, after that it s a piece of cake :).
