Sellout
Never Shout Never

This is probobly the simplest way to play this song, maybe not the most accurate.

For each chord pluck the A string and then strum down on the D,G,B and high e string.

B
Who the hell have i been kidding?
G#m
I sold my soul to the corporation,
B
They know me better than I know myself,
G#m
I better shut it up, i better shut this up,
You got a problem with the way i think,
G#m,
I got a problem with the way you think
              B
that you can program me like a damned machine
          G#m
I m gonna take a stand and say fuck this scene.

B   G#m
I m sick of imagery instead of artistry,
B   G#m
I m sick of apathy instead of harmony,
B
I m sick of poets working part time jobs,
G#m
While pissy people pick and choose the stars,
B   G#m
I know that i should be the last one to speak
      B   G#m
about this but even sellouts have they re dreams, B
Set the music free,

B   G#m
Ba da da da da da, da da da da da
C   (walk up to) Am
Ba da da da da, a da da da da whoa aho oh

B   G#m

what the hell was i trying to prove?
ran away so young now on the move,

like a vandal i wear my mask,
G#m   B
So all you punks back home you can kiss my ass, G#m
cause a gotta feeling deep down inside my soul,
that s taken three whole years to gain control, G#m
And i ain t never, no never, no, never, no never, no never, ~rest~ C (one strum)
coming home,

B   G#m
ba da da da da da, da da da da da da da da C (walk up to) Am
ba da da da da da da da da whoa aho oh

there was no tab anywhere so i just thought i ve give you guys something.
