Verse

F#m                    A
Apparently disposed C#m
but when I just don t know
                          D
everything is different now.

F#m                    A
Appearing in your clothes
                          Bm
you saved from long ago
                          G
and wore for me to see D
just what I had to leave.

A
The words you can translate
Bm
while I self medicate
G
through the passing year
D Dm
so you will disappear.

Repeat!

My breath is what you stole.
Part of me got so old everything just happens now.

Before I stop to die
I ll measuer my life by what I never had

and what I gave to you.

The words you can translate
while I self medicate
through the passing year
so you will disappear

The promise that you broke is passing through your throat and out of such a pretty mouth.

I believe it so but feelings of control
always leave my mind
it happens all the time.
The words you can translate
while I self medicate
through the passing year
so you will disappear
