

No Pain

New Model Army

A C Bb F
Across the town, on the other hill, your lights glow from a different world
A C Bb F C G

A A#/A A
You always found, a place to hide, nails and cross to lay beside, with all the ghosts that we denied

A C Bb F
Now in rippled arcs, across the sky, great white birds of winter fly
A C Bb F D G

When the wheel turns, people change, scattered ashes to the wind, scattered ashes to the wind

A E G

There s no pain, there s no pain, there s no pain, drying river in the blazing sun

D A
A#/A A
There s no pain, there s no pain, there s no pain

A C Bb F
Your parched face, your calloused hands, behind us lie the arid lands
A C Bb F
To say too much, it was not our way, and in the end there wasn t much to say
D G E
The scars are healed now anyway

A E G

And Abraham rose and took his only son, Knife and tinder in his hand and set out

E Bm
Across the desert and up into the scrubland hills. He bound the boy Isaac to the stone

Cmaj7 A G A
Raised the blade and waited for the miracle, But the wind blows silent across the hills

B C D B E F/A
Silent, across the dead and empty hills, Dead, like the god that never came F#/A G/A G#/A
Like your face, the day that you turned away.

A E G C
There s no pain, There s no pain, There s no pain, Drying river in the blazing sun

A E G C
There s no pain, There s no pain, There s no pain, Drying river in the blazing sun
