B D A E B
Old friend, what you doinâ€™ out there?
D A E B D A E
Come inside, sit yourself on that chair
B D A E
Its been a long time, since the last time
B D A E B D
of many burdons have passed through our hands
A E B D A E
Not end today and day in to tonight

[Chorus]

B D A E
do you know what i mean? iâ€™m trying to say im sorry
B D A E
youâ€™re the star in the scene, you re not just anybody
B D A E B
thereâ€™s a light in your eye that i canâ€™t seem to reach
D A E B D A E B
over head, in the sky, is itâ€™ shiningâ€™ on me? is it shining on me?

D A E

Iâ€™ve always knew, that you would not hang around
You and me were like the thieves of the town
too many girlfriends, but not enough love
too many late nights, and not enough sleep strung out and wasted, no good in shape for the life we tasted, there on the table

[Chorus]

do you know what i mean? iâ€™m trying to say im sorry
youâ€™re the star in the scene, your not just anybody
thereâ€™s a light in your eye that i canâ€™t seem to reach
over head, in the sky, is itâ€™ shiningâ€™ on me? is it shining on me?
open our heart, and deeds in our head, but most of the time, we stay in a place
if you go out there, your just up north, itâ€™s a calm cool world, i slapped that door.
