Verse 1

A7 (w/ riff throughout)

The marshall came to town, his hat was pulled way down
He looked like he had business on his mind,
He didn t stop to say, he just rode along his way,
till the stopped in at the office of the mine.

Chorus

A7

Dirty business, dirty business,

A7 G D

dirty business down in coal creek

A7

this morning.

Verse 2

I make two bucks a day, and that ain t a healthy pay,
my kids are just beginning to get sick.
There s talk been going round, how they re gonna shut it down,
if the man don t come and fix things pretty quick.

- Chorus-

Instrumental Verse (Lead over A7)

Verse 3

Pretty soon there was a crowd,
and it was getting pretty loud,
The men said there would be no work today.
But the owner wouldn t budge,
he just sat there like a judge,
and he wouldn t give a nickle more in pay.

- Chorus -

Verse 4

Just then there came a sound,
that rumbled from the ground,
everyone went rushin for the door.
The smoke came pouring out, and it finally left no doubt,
that the mine was not at issue anymore,

- Chorus -

Outro lead over A7 -
