I m trying to sleep
C#m
But this pain in my chest

It s keeping me awake

And every breath I take

E
Feels like it s my last

G#m
I want to be fine

C#m
I want to be sure

A
I want to be a lot of things

And none of them include you

B A
I keep telling myself

I m not miserable

B A
I keep telling myself

I m better off without you

E B
I believed that you meant

C#m
everything you said

Goodbye and thanks for the memories

E B
For the pain and lies

C#m
Every time I had to cry

Goodbye and thanks for the memories

E B/D#
I don't understand
G#m
Because it doesn't make sense

The way you broke it off

Took away my heart
E
Took away all my friends
F#m
I want to go out

And get out of this house

But to begin again is gonna take more than I think I'd ever have to give

E B
I believe that I was
C#m
so cleverly deceived
By good looks, some charm

and a brilliant lie

E B
All the time that was spent
C#m
being used I should have said

Goodbye and thanks for the memories

C#m B
I want to know why

you're such an idiot

A B
I want to know how you can even live with it

C#m B
I want to know why I

should even give a damn

B
About you missing me so terribly

E B
I'm starting to sleep a

C#m
little easier now

Now that I m over this

And I ve made up my mind to

never fall in love again

E B

With someone like you

C#m

someone so confused

I just wish I would have realized that a long, long time before I had...

E B/D#

I believed that you meant

C#m

everything you said

Goodbye and thanks for the memories
