Intro-E C E C over and over

E	C

E	C
But everything connects
E
And that ain t nowhere
B	A
And maybe they re just giving you all you ever wanted
B	A
And maybe you never ever knew what that was
B	A
And maybe you re just finding it out now
B	A	B	A
With a Vietnamese baby on your mind

The rest of the song is just that over and over again. The only other part I know is right after the chorus(right after the drum rolls) the guitar breaks on the B string on the 17th fret. The solos, though, I have no idea about.
