Am7leads to nowhereDm CAny shade is as good as the next F Am7if your shadow doesn't go thereEm FWeek seven: did you really assume Am GI'd find some solace from the letter in your room?Em FNext life, could you kindly refrain Am Gfrom throwing yourself at the mercy of a train?Am F GSilence all, nobody breathe C Fhow in the world could you just leave BbYou promised you would Fsus4 Fsilence that evil with goodAm F GHear me out, I have the floor C FI'll give you my tears, I'll listen more BbYou promised you would Fsus4 Fovercome evil with goodDm C Maybe this world is a barren place F Am7for a soul prone to get lost Dm C But heaven still hounds from the smallest sounds F Am7to the cries of the storm-tossedEm FWeek nine: I am writing in the sandAm Gany small clue that can help me understandEm FEvery whispered secret, every muffled sighAm Gevery half-truth that was added to a lieAm F GSilence all, nobody move C FI've got to know now what you hoped to prove BbYou promised you would Fsus4 Fsilence that evil with goodAm F G Shame feeds guilt, guilt needs release C Fyou took it to God, you made your peace Bband swore that you wouldFsus4 Fovercome evil with goodEm FEvery old demon playing back the crimeAm Gif they needed blood, I'd have gladly given mine Em FA child of the Kingdom, still an invalid Am Gforgive her, please, Father, she don't know what she didAm F GSilence all, now go to sleep C Fthe water is free, the well is deep BbHow can we returnFsus4 Fthat which we never could earn?Am F GGod, I long to see her face C Fwe haven't a hope beyond Your grace BbI know that You willFsus4 Fovercome evil Dmfor good
