I'm pretty sure this is as the record. Groovy song. I play it in bar chords, sliding the C#m to the Dm in the verses.

Am C#m Dm G E
In my shoes there aint no time for sorrow
Am C#m Dm G E
No one to tell me what is wrong and what's right
Am C#m Dm G E
You'll lose if you tell me I'm wrong
Am C#m Dm G E
Walk a mile in these and you'll give and say please

Chorus

Dm Em Dm Em
Dm
In my shoes there's some time I think of what I'd like to be
Em A
It doesn't seem silly to me

Verse 2 (same chords as first verse)

Step fire loot is all tied up in my laces
I robbed from the witch she sent me to the floor
And my shoes missed all the cracks in the pavement
I'm not superstitious or in Kansas no more

Chorus

In my shoes there's some time
I think of what I'd like to be
It doesn't seem silly to me

(2nd time around there's an F and G)

Dm Em Dm Em
F
In my shoes there's some time I think of what I'd like to be
G A
It doesn't seem silly to me

Verse 3

Follow suit
But don t think too heavy
For crushin the soul or stepping down a hole
You choose don t let anything touch you
You re looking at me because it s all you see

In my shoes there s some time
I think of what i d like to be
It doesn t seem silly to me

In my shoes there s some time
I think of what i d like to be
It doesn t seem silly to me (play the last line slow to finish)
