I m a product of the nation
My Nintendo s on the floor
On a permanent vacation
Momma s bangin at my door

Na na na
She s screamin at me
But I don t wanna understand
And I go oooooooh
It goes on and on and on

Chorus
Is it Saturday yet
Cuz I wanna get up
Is it Saturday yet
It just feels like a Saturday
Baby
Is it Saturday yet
I just wanna get up
Is it Saturday yet
Cuz it feels like a Saturday
Baby
Is it Saturday

I was raised by the television
Jerry Springer was my dad
And it wouldn t matter
If Martha Stewart was my mother
And Aaron Carter was my brother
Cuz I d still be bad

I m a product of the nation
I m the last generation

Na na na
They won t stop screamin
And I don t think they understand
And I go oooooooh
It goes on and on and on

Chorus

Information overload
Comin through my mind
That I can t control
In the back of my head
Are the eyes that I see
That has got to be
A side of me
(repeat)

And I go ohhhhhhhhh
She s screamin at me
But I don t wanna understand

Chorus
