

Albert Goes West

Nick Cave & The Bad Seeds

ALBERT GOES WEST

Another stroke of fuzz-laden genius from Cave and co. Very simple chord progressions.

Quick note: during the bridge, you can either play D and A OR D and Am. It sounds like Warren is probably playing a few lines in the Am pentatonic scale. I'll leave it to you to extemporize your own little solo.

D                      A                      G                      D                      D
D, A, G, D D

Albert goes west, he crossed the vast indifferent deserts of Arizona, Oh yeah
He had a psychotic episode on a dude ranch that involved a bottle of ammonia
Henry, he went south and lost his way deep in the weeping forests of Le Vulva
He grew so wan, he grew so sick, he ended up in a bungalow sucking a revolver

D                      A
The light upon your rainy streets offers many reflections
I won't be held responsible for my actions

D                      A                      G                      D
D D, A, G, D D
Bobby, he goes north, then goes east, then over to New Hampshire
Bobby is a cautious man, he walked into a Concord dive to drink a beer

D                      A
Mhm

D                      A
Do you wanna dance?
Do you wanna move?
Do you wanna dance?
Do you wanna groove?
I said the world is full of endless abstractions
And I won't be held responsible for my actions

D                      A                      G                      D
Me, I ain't going anywhere, just sit and watch the sun come up, I like it here
I watch the people go ticking past, go hey hey hey, you know I gotta say I like it here

All right

Sha la-la-la, sha la-la-la, sha la-la-la-la-la-la
Sha-la-la-la, sha la-la-la, sha la-la-la-la-la-la
