

The Singer

Nick Cave & The Bad Seeds

Capo on 2nd. Essentially, it s E and A2 the entire song.

[E]

As I walk these narrow streets

[A2] [E]

Where a million passin feet have trod before me

With my guitar in my hand

[A2] [E]

Suddenly I realize nobody knows me

[A2]

Where yesterday the multitude

[E]

Screamed and cried my name out for a song

Today the streets are empty

[A2] [E]

And the crowds have all gone home

I pass a million houses

[A2] [E]

But there is no place that I belong

All I knew to give you

[A2] [E]

Was song after song after song

[A2]

All the truths I tried to tell you

[E]

Were as distant to you as the moon

[A2]

Born 200 years too late

[E]

And 200 years too soon

I m a child of this age

[A2] [E]

Locked into the pages of your book

And when I am but dust and clay

[A2] [E]

And all the children stop to take a look

[A2]

Will they marvel at the miracles I did perform

[E]

And the heights I did aspire

[A2]

Or will they tear out the pages of the book

[E]

To light a fire

With the rain on my face

[A2]

[E]

There is no place that I belong

Did you forget this fucking singer so soon?

And did you forget my song?

This is that rad guitar riff. Tabs relative to capo.
