Marie Provost Nick Lowe From the album Jesus of Cool Tuning: EADGBE Crazy lyric. Great pop song. Marie Provost did not look her best The day the cops bust into her loneli-ness In the cheap hotel up on Hollywood West July Twenty Nine G C She d been lying there for two or three weeks The neighbours said they never heard a squeak While hungry eyes that could not speak Said even little doggies have got to eat D/F# /B Am She was a winner that became a doggie s dinner She never meant that much to me G C G D Who oh oh oh poor Ma-rie C Marie Provost was a movie queen Mysterious angel of the silent screen And run like the wind the nation s young men steamed When Marie crossed the silent screen

 ${\tt G}$ ${\tt C}$ ${\tt D}$ But when the talkies came Mar-ie just couldn t cope ${\tt G}$ / ${\tt Gb}$ ${\tt Em}$ The public said Mar-ie take a walk

Woah she came out west from New York

Those quaalude bombs didn t help her sleep
As her nights grew long and her days grew bleak
                /Gb
It s all downhill once you ve passed your peak
Marie got ready for that last big sleep
The cops came in and they looked a-round
