Reasons Why Nickel Creek REASONS WHY by Nickel Creek (Sean Watkins and David Puckett) charted by Bo Frazer with help from Larry Dean NOTE: capo on fret 1 _____ Intro = verse 1st half Verse 1: Em D С D Where am I today? I wish that I knew, Em D А СD Cause looking around there s no sign of you. Em D С I don t remember one jump or one leap, Em D Α C (D) Just quiet steps away from your lead. Verse 2: I m holding my heart out but clutching it too, Feeling this sort of a love that we once knew. I m calling this home when it s not even close, Playing the role with nerves left exposed. Chorus 1: C G C G D D Standing on a darkened stage, stumbling through the lines. D Em GC A7 D Others have excuses, but I have my reasons why. Verse 3: We get distracted by dreams of our own, But nobody s happy while feeling alone, And knowing how hard it hurts when we fall, We lean another ladder against the wrong wall. Chorus 2: D С G D C And climb high to the highest rung, to shake fists at the sky. GC Em D While others have excuses, I have my reasons why. Bridge: C D Em D With so much deception it s hard not to wander away, Em С D

It s hard not to wander away, It s hard not to wander away. ====
