Not like I need to depend upon anyone
Since I can see the lack of need for me to be here at all
One more anthem for the know it all
I won t be standing here for long, I better learn how to crawl
Learn how to crawl
In ten minutes i ll be laying out flat on the floor

Like I need to defend my own innocence
So what? I did it, I admit it and I m pleading the fifth
One more anthem for the know it all
I won t be standing here for long, I better learn how to crawl
Learn how to crawl
In ten minutes i ll be laying out flat on the floor

Eight minutes and i m losing it a little bit
Five minutes and my descriptions not starting to fit
Here we go and i m forgetting all that i ve even known
I won t be standing up for long, I better learn how to crawl

Not like I need to depend upon anyone
Since I can see the lack of need for me to be here at all
One more anthem for the know it all
I won t be standing here for long, I better learn how to crawl
Learn how to crawl
In ten minutes i ll be laying out flat on the floor
I can t stand up at all
Can t see nothing at all
In ten minutes i ll be laying out flat on the floor
