Bm                D                G    Em
Where will you be when the sky comes down?
Bm                D                G    Em
And what would you do if the strength was found?
Bm                D
Stand right beside me when the ground starts shaking
G                Em
The only sound you ll hear is the breath we re taking
Bm                D
If there is one thing I can promise you
G                Em    Bm
We ll see the light again
```

```
Bm                D
This is the calm before the coming storm
G
This is the ripped-sky-morning
Em
Without warning now
Bm                D
This is the fight that we ve been waiting for
G
And there s no sense in running
Em                Bm    D    G
The hammer s coming down
Em                Bm    D    G
The hammer s coming down
Em
The hammer s coming
```

```
Bm                D                G    Em
```

Once it s started, there s no turning back
 Bm D G Em
 And I ll be with you when the sun turns black
 Bm D
 Cause finding faith will always be the hardest
 G Em
 Why you re standing in the heart of darkness
 Bm D
 If there is one thing I can promise you
 G Em Bm
 We ll see the light again

Bm D
 This is the calm before the coming storm
 G
 This is the ripped-sky-morning
 Em
 Without warning now
 Bm D
 This is the fight that we ve been waiting for
 G
 And there s no sense in running
 Em Bm D G
 The hammer s coming down
 Em Bm D G
 The hammer s coming down
 Em
 The hammer s coming

(G A Bm D)

G A
 Holding on
 Bm
 We ll make it till the dawn
 D
 It ll be here before long
 G A
 Holding on
 Bm
 If we can find the light
 D
 We can make our way back home
