

Monterrey Honey
Nicole Atkins

Monterrey Honey (Cotton Mather cover)

I heard Nicole Atkins performing this at Johnny Brendas in Philadelphia. It was a fantastic night... The concert was sold out and I was stuck in the rain until Irina Yalkowsky stepped outside to have a smoke... Nicole's version is just beautiful and I was surprised that there were no tabs for this song.

I don't usually do this so I am sure this version is full of mistakes but you should get the idea... besides I refuse to try to transcribe anything else that was performed that night -

Irina is just too good of a guitar player for me to attempt that!

Cheers,
