

Alonely Nightingale

Hey guys, so there are two versions of this song that I m aware of; the original off

I , and the reworked version from Nightfall Overture . Both follow the same chordal structure, but are in different keys, one is a semitone down, and the other is two, not hard to work out.

Am6 Em
I m all alone

C Dsus4add9
Waiting for no one

C Dsus4add9 Esus4 E
I see the daylight fade away

Am6 Em
I m so afraid

C Dsus4add9
I know you re around me

C Dsus4add9 Esus4 E
And I hear you crying in the wind

Am6 Em
If I could bring you back

Am Am/G Am/F#
If I had the power, I d give you my world

Em
And my life, you d have it all

Am6 Em
But life is not a game

Am Am/G Am/F#
And I know the rules and I know I must follow

Em
them every single day

C D G
I feel that I m loosing it all

Am C D
There s nothing left to live for

C D G
I m ending it all in my dreams

C D Em
It always seems so easy in my sleep

Am6 Em
I m all alone

C Dsus4add9
Waiting for darkness
C Dsus4add9 Esus4 E
I wish the sun would slip away

Am6 Em
I still believe
C Dsus4add9
That you didn't leave me
C Dsus4add9 Esus4 E
I see your shadow in the haze

Am6 Em
If I could have some peace
Am Am/G Am/F#
Ending the nightmare, closing the chapter
Em
And join you in your sleep
Am6 Em
But life is not a game
Am Am/G Am/F#
And I know all the rules and I know I must follow
Em
them every single day

C D G
I feel that I'm losing it all
Am C D
There's nothing left to live for
C D G
I'm ending it all in my dreams
Am C D
And deep inside I knew

Em Bm
That there was one part of me
C G
That tried to save you from yourself
Am B7
The other let you go and I will Em Bm C G
Never deny I was walking on the line of Am B7 Em
Here and nevermore in selfish pride
