Heavy is the sound
Aiming eyes towards the ground

Aminor C

And this is how it feels under a goodbye

Pulling away from the curb
Lines in the windshield are getting blurred

Aminor C

And this is how it looks Through a goodbye

Stare into picture frames
Friends take the shape of canes

And this is how you stand next to a goodbye

No ships move on the water

Too much food left on my plate

No stars up in the sky

Aminor

Sleep is for the lucky ones

Who have their head on straight

Unwinding all the time

Look to the wind for company

Cause this is what you do
