C#min D#
I was shakin in my shoes
G# C#min
the day I heard the news
E F#
said the deal has been done
c#min G# c#min
the moon just bought out the sun
D#
I d heard of the deal
G# c#min
but never thought it was real
E F#
said if the sun don t shine
c#min G# c#min
if you wanna live there ain t no use in tryin
D#
Now the preachers were a prayin
G# c#min
and the old farmers kept sayin
E F#
if tomorrow the sun don t rise
c#min G# c#min
I m afraid I won t open my eyes
so the people gathered round G# c#min
and nobody made a sound
E F#
said if the rooster refuses to crow
c#min G# c#min
the fields will cease to grow
D#
there eyes stared to the sky
G# c#min
and noone could cry
E F#
said there is no more doubt
c#min G# c#min
as they watched the sun slowly burn out
now the drunkards loosened a buckle G# c#min

and the wise men began to chuckle

E F#

said if the sun don t come back soon

c#min G# c#min

we ll never see the moon

now the moon realized his mistake

G# c#min

and grew red in the face

E F#

said my lesson has been learned

c#min G# c#min

when you don t think you re bound to get burned
