C#min E
I was shakin in my shoes
A C#min
the day I heard the news
F G
said the deal has been done c#min A c#min
the moon just bought out the sun
E
I d heard of the deal
A c#min
but never thought it was real
F G
said if the sun don t shine
c#min G# c#min
if you wanna live there ain t no use in tryin
Now the preachers were a prayin
A c#min
and the old farmers kept sayin
F G
if tomorrow the sun don t rise
c#min G# c#min
I m afraid I won t open my eyes
so the people gathered round
A c#min
and nobody made a sound
F G
said if the rooster refuses to crow
c#min G# c#min
the fields will cease to grow E
there eyes stared to the sky
A c#min
and noone could cry
F G
said there is no more doubt
c#min G# c#min
as they watched the sun slowly burn out
now the drunkards loosened a buckle
A c#min

and the wise men began to chuckle

F G

said if the sun don t come back soon

c#min G# c#min

we ll never see the moon

now the moon realized his mistake

A c#min

and grew red in the face

F G

said my lesson has been learned

c#min G# c#min

when you don t think you re bound to get burned
