C#min F
I was shakin in my shoes
Bb C#min
the day I heard the news
F# G#
said the deal has been done c#min Bb c#min
the moon just bought out the sun
F
I d heard of the deal
Bb c#min
but never thought it was real F# G#
said if the sun don t shine
c#min G# c#min
if you wanna live there ain t no use in tryin
F
Now the preachers were a prayin
Bb c#min
and the old farmers kept sayin
F# G#
if tomorrow the sun don t rise
c#min G# c#min
I m afraid I won t open my eyes
F
so the people gathered round Bb c#min
and nobody made a sound
F# G#
said if the rooster refuses to crow
c#min G# c#min
the fields will cease to grow
F
there eyes stared to the sky Bb c#min
and noone could cry
F# G#
said there is no more doubt
c#min G# c#min
as they watched the sun slowly burn out F
now the drunkards loosened a buckle Bb c#min

and the wise men began to chuckle

F# G#

said if the sun don t come back soon

c#min G# c#min

we ll never see the moon

F

now the moon realized his mistake

Bb c#min

and grew red in the face

F# G#

said my lesson has been learned

c#min G# c#min

when you don t think you re bound to get burned
