Am C F x4

Just a child, just my friend,
Your Life, held by them,
And I ve got no money, but I ve got hope,
And maybe I m the only, but no one knows

Am F C G x2

Sometimes God gets confused,
He certainly did when he picked you

C F Am G x4

Sometimes you feel like giving up, when there s noting you can do,
Sometimes, you feel you re not enough, but that s not true
Sometimes you feel like giving up, when there s nothing to prove,
But hold tight, wipe your eyes love, cause I (G F) I m here with you (C)

Am C F x4

Just a child, just bad luck
And as we grow, your time stops,
We ve got no money, but we still try,
Cause you re not the only one to cry

Am F C G x2

Sometimes God gets confused,
He certainly did when he picked you

C F Am G x4

Sometimes, you feel like giving up, when there s nothing you can do,
Sometimes, you feel you re not enough, but that s never true
Sometimes, you feel like giving up, when there s nothing to prove,
But hold tight, wipe your tears love, cause I (G F) I m here with you (C)

Let it out, let it fade,
Let it out, we ll burn away,
Let it out, let it fade,
Let it out, watch it burn away.

Sometimes, you feel like giving up, when there s nothing you can do,
Sometimes, you feel you re not enough, but that s never true
