

The Sun Will Come Up The Seasons Will Change
Nina Nesbitt

[Verse 1]

F Am
Walking down Parsons Green, I can feel the cold
G C
The leaves in the park are turning brown, I m twenty two years old
F Am
Crazy that I was stood right here just five years ago
G C
With the heat on my skin and a lover who s now someone I don t know

[Pre-Chorus]

F
You don t see it when it s happening
Am
Happens over time
G
First you re laughing, then you re crying
C
Then you can t decide

[Chorus]

F Am
My life s uncertain and sometimes it s strange
F Am
But one thing I ve learnt is it won t stay the same
F Am
Even in the darkness, I ll be okay
F C
The sun will come up, the seasons will change
F C
The sun will come up, the seasons will change
F C
The sun will come up, the seasons will change

[Verse 2]

F
Winter comes racing round
Am
There s something about the air
G
The fire is on and the chimney smoke
C
Is tangled in my hair

F

Crazy how much my life has changed

Am

In just a year

G

There s people I ve met, people I ve left

C

And some that didn t make it here

[Pre-Chorus]

F

You don t see it when it s happening

Am

Happens over time

G

First you re laughing, then you re crying

C

Then you can t decide

[Chorus]

F

Am

My life s uncertain and sometimes it s strange

F

Am

But one thing I ve learnt is it won t stay the same

F

Am

Even in the darkness, I ll be okay

C

The sun will come up, the seasons will change

F

C

The sun will come up, the seasons will change
