Intro C D G

          C                  D                  G
I love a girl in california
          C  Em
but I married a girl up in new york
          C                  D                  G
I miss that girl in california
          C                  D                  G
and everyday i miss her more
          C                  D                  G
You might say that I am crazy
          C                  D                  Em
To give up everything I got
          C                                  D                  G
But like the sun i m headed westward,
          C                  D                  G
Till I set in Hollywood

          D      G,      Em,                          D,
So long, don t you wait up for me
                  C,      G                  D
I ll be long gone you know
                                  G                          Em
And if I m so wrong you can say you knew
          D                                  C      G                  F      C D G C D
I would be and i ll crawl home to you alone

          C                                  D                  G
I want a sky that s never ending
          C                                  D                          Em
there s too much rain here in New York
          C                  D                  G
I got a name in California
          C                                  D                  G
when I get there I will look her up
