

Chorus:

B A
I believe in a brown eyed girl

A E
That could change the world and me

B A A---B-- (A--- = one strum then let ring)
Don t it make it seem like suddenly

E B A
Everything is so surreal

A E
Like the color in her eyes

B

Takes me far away
A A
She came suddenly and so on =)

She ll never lets me fall too far behind
I won t walk ahead of her I won t
Two notes of a chord side by side
Two steps down a path between the vine
I feel the magic of a girl who who will bring the best of me out through
I think I d rather be close to you, to you

I believe in a brown eyed girl
That could change the world and me
Don t it make it seem like suddenly
Everything is simple like a motorcycle ride
Faster than the rain, she came suddenly

I feel, you fell
All that stood still through each melody
I thank you for you

I feel the magic of a girl who, will bring the best of me out through
I think I d rather be close to you, oh

I believe in a brown eyed girl
That could change the world and me
Don t it make it seem like suddenly
Everything is so surreal
Life the color in her eyes
Takes me far away
Where I want to stay
La da da da da
She came suddenly
La da da da da
She came suddenly
La da da da da
