I didn t mean to drag under
But I was thinking about you
And how your eyes swallowed me whole
I ve tried my hardest to forget it
But a broken heart is murder for the soul
How does it feel to be
One of the beautiful people?
Everytime that I leave it s like goodbye...

        G5                E5
Forever Angela don t hate me
   C5           G5          D5
No matter what they say I ll always love you
 G5                        E5
Don t believe the authorities

     D5                        E5        D5
And no one could hear her scream at all
