Em                    C
She was confused and G                            D
abused in this life
Em                    C
Emotional and violent moments
G                            D
Seemed to take the longest time
Em                    C
Every single knockout dragout
G                            D
Fight they ever had
Em                                    C
he starts to laugh he starts to lie
G                            D
with Suddenly psychotic eyes.

C                            D
Every night she cried herself
Em                                    B
to sleep she didn t recognize
C                                    D                            Em
Her own face in the mirror black and blue
C                            D
so afraid Intimidation
Em                                    B
like a child she hides away
C                                    D
he would always try to justify Em                    C                    G                    D

what wasn't true

Em C G D

Justified black eye

Em C

Taken for granted

G D

she sleeps by the phone

Em C

waiting for a call from him

G D

but it seems he's never coming home

Em C

14 beers later

G D

He is there without an answer

Em C

Once again she questions his lies

G D

he goes to bed with no reply

C D

Tomorrow morning different story

Em B

and he'll be a different guy

C D Em

he'll justify her black eye with another lie

C D

She packs her bags in great temptation

Em B

he's on his knees again he cries

C D

a hug & a kiss and a don't know why

Em

as a tear drops from her swollen eye

B

Apologies until tonight and another

Justified black eye

Em C G D
