No Use for a Name
C Cadd9/B
Dim light, Saw you sleeping
          A
the door is open waiting to be closed
                           Cadd9/B
                                      Cadd9
and it s warm in this little room
   Gsus4/G C/E
but december is so cold
     Cadd9/B
waking to a nightmare passing out and hoping for a dream that will bring back his memory and everything you wanted was so close to you that night
                     Cadd9/B
I don t know how you could have dealt with this
                                                C
But nothing could prepare you for that risk
  C Cadd9/B
Reliving every minute makes the moment seem further away
                Cadd9/B Cadd9
unimaginable for me
   Csus4/G
             C/E
the room with the blue paint
            Cadd9/B
no words can repair this
         A
so why do people still talk about faith Am
when it s proven to be nothing great
Now every day reminds you of what could and should have been
                 Cadd9/B
I cannot find the last line to this song

Oh yeah, please remember it must go on.
