

Part Two

No Use for a Name

RIP Tony Sly

Tabbed by: David Lwin

This is my first time tabbing and one of my most favourite song from No Use For A Name.

Hope you ll enjoy!

Em7

A

And always take away the pain that you ll go through

D

G

D

My impression is not always what it seems

G

A

D

You re more of a reflection of what I used to be

A Bm

A

...So why do I feel hollow when I look at your photograph?

Bm

G

You take down my fortress and kill me with a smile

D

Please hold that thought a while

A

G

And I ll try to put you on this path

D

I hope you find the road I couldn t see

A

Verse: Once I was you I thought the world was safe

Em7

A

A new perspective; everybody is insane

D G D
Protecting you is a paranoid excuse

G A G D
I know that you ll do better than I could ever do

A Bm G
... And thoughts of self-destruction

D A
Are now all buried in the past

Bm G
You take down my barricade and melt away my heart

D A G
If loving hurts so much I want this pain to always last

D
I hope you pass the test that I have failed

A
Chorus: You won t be by yourself

Bm A G D
I ll live for your problems and think of you when I m gone

A Bm A G A
Don t worry now it won t be long

D A
Outro: I apologize to you for the words not spoken yet

Bm A G
Don t want you to look back and live in regret

D A Bm G A D
Some day you ll ask me why I was away...
