Solitaire No Use for a Name Intro: E Am F G E x2 Am F G I can pretend for you, that I mean Ε Am F every word said it s true E C G That I d probably rather be like E Am G G a stranger in disguise F G And act as if nothing ever.. F G E Am Died or faded away, got lonelier with age G F G And time isn t on our side С G I m sorry to take the thoughts that keep you awake F G And make it seem like they re overrated С G F You certainly talk about me more when G I fall down C G Am And when I get up, my time is never enough F G Loved in front behind my back hated E E I guess it has everything to do with luck Am F G E x2 Am F I can defend the truth G E Am F but I sound like white noise to my friends G E C As I raise my glass to you G E Am G

Am

In a stupor we speak words F G That couldn t be more honest FGEAmLies we lived before are fights without a warGFGI m dead when it s in your head

С G Am I m starting to think that all the buoys we sink \mathbf{F} G Are cutting our chances of being saved С G G F I see that the end is all we have to let us know С G Am I d like to believe in something more than a dream F G For when the will to be one has faded \mathbf{F} Е Am I guess the truth will soon be deceived G F My friend that isn t there, G С My solitaire.

I m not sure that chords are 100% correct, it s my first tab. So leave your comments or corrections. naimovich_julia@mail.ru