Well if i died and left a broken soul
it would leave a hole, in your life Well if i died and left you with no one Would you stare at the sun and think of me

Oh well if my death was beautiful would that make our love beautiful?
Well if i died in flames would your heart do the same for me

Oh what would i do, without you
I ll sing what would i do, without you
I ll sing what would i do, without you
I ll sing what would i do, without you
I d be lost.
