

Stranger
Noah and the Whale

Capo 1

Am G

Am G

Am G
Last night I slept with a stranger
Am G
For the first time, since you've gone
Am G Am G
Regretfully lying naked, I reflect on what I've done
Am G Am G
Her leg still forced inbetween mine, sticking to my skin
Am G Am G
Stroking my chest and my hair, head resting below my chin

F C
I'm a fox trapped in the headlights
F C
oh and I'm waiting, for the tyres to spin over me

F Am G F Am G
Cos everything I love has gone away
F Am G F C
Oh, cos everything I love has gone away

Am C
Am C
Am C
Am C

Am G Am G
Oh the dark night is moving slower, oh and sleep won't rescue me
Am G Am G
Leaving me here to suffer, this shameful misery
Am G Am G
So I long for a taste of freedom, or at least freedom from this bed
Am G Am G
Silently picking up my clothes, I turn on my heels and I fled

F C
And the dark of the street is no solace to me
F C
Oh and I don't believe my conscience, will ever be clear again

F Am G F Am G
Cos everything I love has gone away

Oh, cos everything I love has gone away
