Intro

Am G F C Am F G (x2)

Verse 1

Am G C
I was a wandering bird,
Am G F C
I called away for it to save my soul.
Am G C
You were a wandering bird,
F G Am F
and nothing was wrong with killing our time and not killing ourselves.

Verse 2

Am G C
Take me away to the west side of town,
Am G C F
where we laid out our dresses and covered them down
Am G F C
there was sky full of blue, and sky full of grey
F G Am F
I was wondering how it could stay that way, I just walked away.

Pre-Chorus

F C
Now is the time when the colors align and you lay in your bed dripping
G Am
naked with sweat
F G Am F
C
and I call around for answers to come but its so f**king hard when you
F C
donâ€™t know your done
F C G Am
its almost over but nothing is wrong

Chorus

Am C G C F
C
You were an avalanche, I was a city perched desperately close to the G mountain.
