Verse 1
G#m F# B
I was a wandering bird,
G#m F# E B
I called away for it to save my soul.
G#m F# B
You were a wandering bird,
E F# G#m E
and nothing was wrong with killing our time and not killing ourselves.

Verse 2
G#m F# B
Take me away to the west side of town,
G#m F# B E
where we laid out our dresses and covered them down
G#m F# E B
there was sky full of blue, and sky full of grey
E F# G#m E
I was wondering how it could stay that way, I just walked away.

Pre-Chorus
E B
Now is the time when the colors align and you lay in your bed dripping
F# G#m
naked with sweat
E F# G#m E
B and I call around for answers to come but its so fking hard when you E B donâ€™t know your done
E B F# G#m
its almost over but nothing is wrong

Chorus
G#m B F# B E
B
You were an avalanche, I was a city perched desperately close to the F# mountain.

G#m F# E B E

B

You called out for water, and I gave you wine like a b*tch that I was

F#

B

and I called you mine.

G#m

F#

E

Its so hard to know when its over when its not begun.

G#m

Your body is calling me,

E

F#

I cant get right when Iâ€™m wrong,

B

but you are so beautiful.

B

You are so beautiful,

E

G#m F# B

babe your so beautiful.
