On the Intro and between verses Noah slides up the B string from 3rd fret to 5th and back again between the Em and G chords.

Then hammers on the B string on 1st fret then off again on the G chord.

Before hammering on the D string on 2nd fret on the C chord.

I ve tried to show this above - probably not very well.

Also plenty of C chord variation throughout the song. Lots of hammering on n stuff.

There s a nice video on youtube where you can see/hear it. Should be able to work it out from that.
