

Lori Meyers

Nofx

(Capo on 2)

Intro: A F G E

A G F
Lori Meyers used to live upstairs
 C/E G C C/E
Our parents had been friends for years
A G F C/E
Almost every afternoon we d play forbidden games
G C
At nine years old there s no such thing (as shame)

Dm (not too sure of this chord.. I say just play this for now.)

A G F C/E
It wasn t recognition of her face, what brought me back
 G C
was a familiar mark as it flashed across the screen
 E A G F
I bought some magazines, some video tape scenes
 C/E G C
Incriminating acts, I felt that I could save her

Dm (same with this one)

A G F
Who the hell are you to tell me how to live?
 C/E G C
You think I sell my body; I merely sell my time.
 C/E A G F
I ain t no Cinderella, I ain t waiting for no prince, to save
 C/E G C
me in fact until just now I was doing just fine.
 C/E

And on and on..

A G
I know what degradation feels like
 F C/E
I felt it on the floor
 G C
at the factory Where I worked long before,
 C/E A
I took control
 G F
now I answer to me

C/E G

E

The 50K I make this year will go anywhere I please

Where s the problem?

(Intro x2)

That s all. The chords for the intro are based on the rhythm guitar, not the lead;

it makes it easier to play on acoustic, in my opinion.

If you want it to sound cool on acoustic, feel free to throw a couple of Am chords instead of A chords in there instead. Sounds great.
