

The Black And White

Nofx

C D G
Mr. McCarthy killed the light
F C
He didn't wake his lovely wife
D G
He left the key inside the door
Woke on the wrong side of the bed
She can't remember what he said
But she sure knew what he had done

A
Little choices in a
F
A little town maybe a
C G F
Little man is right to be afraid
Biblic moralization
Identity frustration
Confused man cannot ruin his heart
C B F G C
So he may be fucking her, but he's thinking about him

Catherine McKinnon does exist
She likes to call herself a feminist
A crusader who fights the pain
But what she really hates is sex
Erotic images oppress
And debase women as a whole
Simple solutions created by black and white thinking
Too bad the world don't work that way
Catherine should get busy porkin
That dolt Andrea Dworkin
I think they need a good hard fuck
So she may be off her back, now she needs to get off ours

C B A
A little man sits alone
C D G
His sexuality's been carved in stone
C D
He don't love her
G D C
And she don't really care
C D G
Two victims of the black and white

Outro: G B C A G Or something like that
