Dizzy heart and dizzy eye,

If she said jump, you say how high?

Now you mised the wall because the water has run dry.

Memories are a summer breeze,

Time trickles of those shadow streams,

Now boy, you ve brought me to my knees.

There were no signs, oh, signs, yeah, signs,

Boy don t you thow your heart away to give up.

We need the signs, oh, signs, yeah, signs,

Boy she s about to fade away.

There were no signs, oh, signs, yeah, signs,

Girl don t you get it back in the way to give it.

Signs, oh, signs, yeah, signs, ow,

Signs, oh, signs,

Girl don t you get it back in the way to give it.

Signs, oh, I am about to fade away.

You stole my heart,

Now we have to go back to a start,
Now we are apart.
You stol emy heart,
Now we have to go back to that part,
I don t remember that part.
You say I m traumatized,
With all those lows and highs,
Now we are apart.
I don t remember this part, oh yeah,
Now we breath into the light you don t know.
