A                                D
I m left with my lobotomy, lost dreams of teenage piracy
F#m                                D to scour night time city streets for benefits for all to reap
A                                D
and all of us and in all our scores, we d run the streets, F#m
they d lock their doors, we re not a stop or detour,
we d take their world over.

Chorus:

A                                D                                F#m
And when its summer I ll smoke and choke and work on cancer
D                                A
when they all leave, I ll sleep all fucking winter

but when the sun does rise, I ll open up my eyes and start the day.
